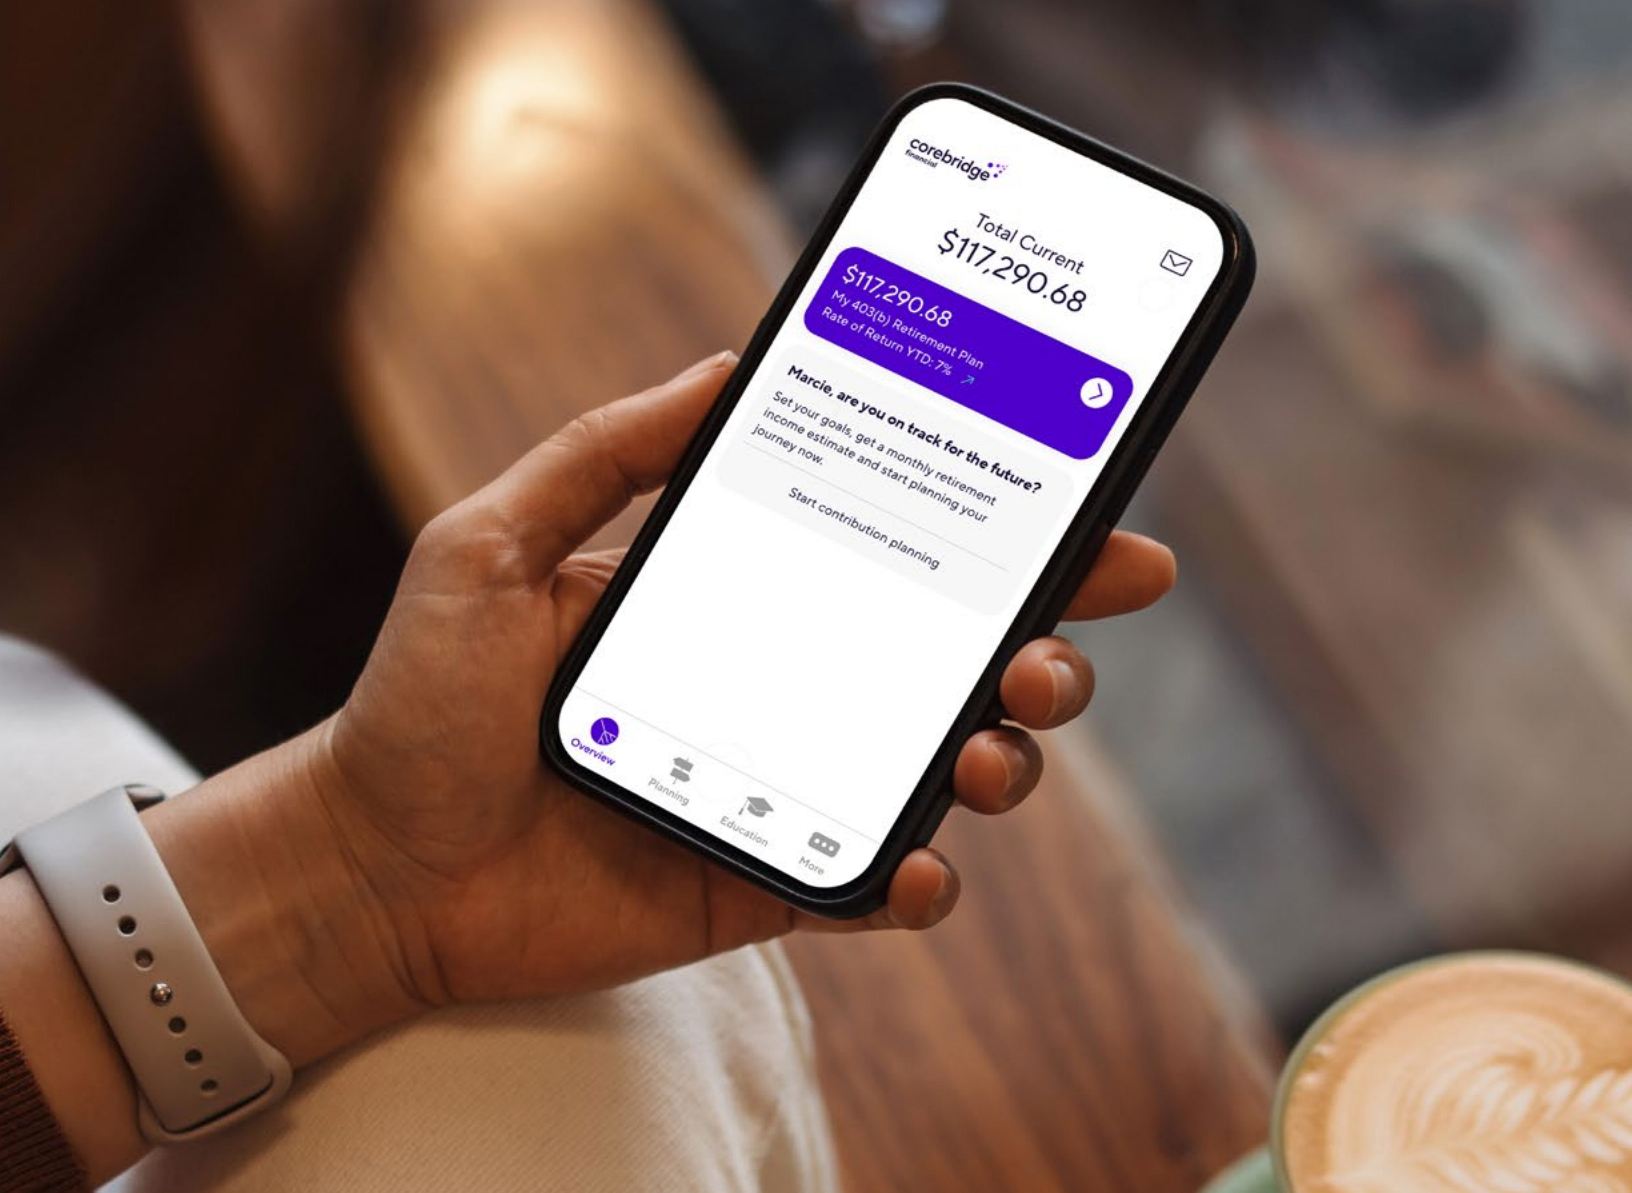
Introducing a new online account experience from Corebridge

Putting the power to act at your employees' fingertips.



Get ready for a streamlined, simplified experience.

At Corebridge Financial, we're dedicated to helping your employees take action for their future. That's why we've redesigned our online experience to go beyond typical account management. Our goal is to help people take the right actions—because great things happen when you stop looking ahead and start moving ahead.

Delivering built-in features and tools your employees can count on.

Clear and simple information

Account details are upfront and easy to read. Helpful graphics show progress and highlight what's important.

Effortless control

Simple navigation lets employees make changes and manage their accounts with just a few clicks.

Guidance done the right way

Personalized guidance, helpful tools and interactive educational resources meet current needs and help employees chart their future course.

What employees can expect upon login

Concise, clean and connected site design

After a quick, guided enrollment and registration process, your employees will see balance and performance front and center with deep insight into key account details from their Personal Dashboard. They can review savings, employer and personal contributions, money sources and an overall account snapshot. Plus, employees can add outside assets to get a complete picture of their finances.

With the new Action Bar employees can quickly navigate to the top actions that data has shown users do the most—check transaction status, access statements, update beneficiaries and more. They can also access all available transactions and find forms from the top-line navigation at any time.

And it's even easier to send/receive sensitive information through the Message Center. Here, employees will receive notifications, get progress updates on transaction status and can provide documents with ease.

If you want to share important plan information or need additional details on their accounts, the Alerts Section grabs their attention and directs employees to action.

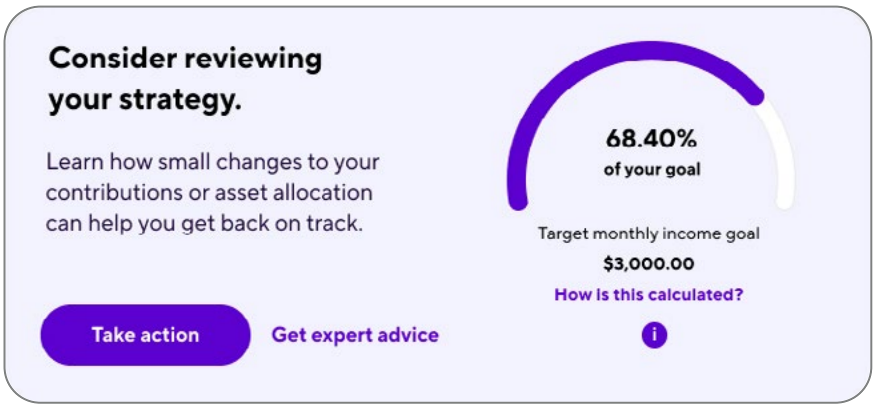
Simple planning experiences guide the journey

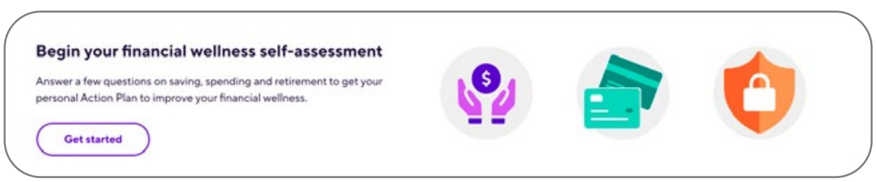
Personalized guidance, tools and interactive education meet your employees where they are—and help get them where they want to go.

Retirement outlook tool



This calculator helps employees get a handle on retirement income needs with a focus on estimating monthly income in retirement—essential to informed planning. Employees can directly change their contribution or asset allocation, aligned with their recommendation, to get on track.

Financial wellness self-assessment



After answering a few questions on saving and spending, debt management and retirement planning, your employees will receive a personal Action Plan highlighting the top three actions they should take to improve their financial wellness. Their plan is available every time they login—and the more they engage, the higher their financial wellness score. This information is available on the Plan Health Dashboard in SponsorFIT® to help you better understand your employees' financial education needs.
